

Master's Degree Program
PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Emphases: Healthcare Management, Government Management
(for Pennsylvania residents)

ABOUT THIS DEGREE

The Master of Public Administration program focuses on concepts and skills needed to effectively manage organizations operating outside of the traditional business environment.

The MPA program requires successful completion of 45 semester credit hours, and offers students a choice of two emphases: government management, nonprofit management and healthcare management. Students must declare an emphasis prior to graduation; successful completion of an emphasis is noted on transcripts. Total program length varies based on the number of courses taken per eight-week session.

Emphases offered within the MPA program:

- Healthcare Management
- Government Management

KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS

- Providing a comprehensive public administration education emphasizing practical applications.
- Equipping students with the skills necessary for managing in a multi-disciplinary non-business environment.
- Enabling students to apply up-to-date and effective management practices in their organizations.
- Developing leadership and team-building skills in an environment where profit is not the paramount objective.

DID YOU KNOW?

Keller's Master of Public Administration program has achieved voluntary accreditation from the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP, www.acbsp.org), demonstrating that it has met the standards of business education that promote teaching excellence.

¹Credits and degrees earned from this institution do not automatically qualify the holder to participate in professional licensing exams to practice certain professions. Persons interested in practicing a regulated profession must contact the appropriate state regulatory agency for their field of interest. For instance, typically 150 credit hours or education are required to meet state regulatory agency education requirements for CPA licensure.

²Employment in this occupation may require years of relevant experience.

³Additional hours of industry-specific training may be required to obtain employment in this field.

Programs, course requirements and availability vary by location. Some courses may be available online only. All students enrolled in site-based programs will be required to take some coursework online and, for some programs and locations, a substantial portion of the program may be required to be completed online. Keller's academic catalog, available via keller.edu/catalogs, contains the most current and detailed program information, including admission, progression and graduation requirements.
